Dear Parents,

Amazingly, summer is around the corner and we are already hard at work planning our next adventure at Camp Shemesh. Our theme this summer is "Let's Explore." Each week at Camp Shemesh, we will explore a children's author and the world they created as we read and let our imaginations soar. We will read Todd Parr books and talk about kindness, sharing our world, and family. Our campers will enjoy hearing about the adventures of Sammy the Spider and how he celebrates all the Jewish holidays with his family. We will explore the stories of Norman Bridwell and see how Clifford often saves the day. We will also read about the tales of Elmer the Elephant by David McKee, and some of our favorite books by Laura Numeroff, such as, "If you give a mouse a cookie." These are only to name of a few of the weekly tales we will enjoy at Camp Shemesh!

While we read these fabulous books and so many more, we will create lots of art projects, have fun with science experiments, and enhance our Jewish values as well. It will be so much fun to explore the world through these characters and their exciting adventures. Additionally, each week there will be a Judaica activity. We will touch upon the Parsha and celebrate Shabbos with a party in each bunk. There are a few surprises we are working on as well, which will be announced on the camp calendar.

At Camp Shemesh, our days always begin with lots of bright smiles and are filled with swimming, arts & crafts, music, gym, projects, and so much more. The campers have so much fun going from activity to activity while singing through the hallways and running around outside. It is such a pleasure to spend each day watching them enjoy their new friends and all camp has to offer. So please come join us at Camp Shemesh for another amazing summer as we jump into some fabulous stories and enjoy the adventures that follow!

I'm looking forward to hearing from you,
Michelle Shteingart,
Camp Director
