Hakoras Hatou Parent Awardees

Shlomo and Tzirel Klein

Shlomo and Tzirel Klein have been married for 11 years and are the parents of 4 children: Chana Malky, Volvy, Shmeal, and Shaindy. Chana Malky, 4th grade, Volvy, 3rd grade, and Shmeal, Pre-1A, attend Stein Yeshiva. Shlomo was born and raised in upstate New York. He studied at Etz Chaim Yeshiva in Wilrijk, Belgium, and at Yeshiva Shaar Efraim in Monsey. Tzirel was also born and raised in upstate New York and worked as an elementary school Judaic studies teacher and as a teacher's aide at Hamaspik, a school for children with special needs. They met and married when they were each 19 years old and live in Airmont NY. Shlomo owns a marketing firm since 2010 and Tzirel owns Bubble Blastte, a unique boutique that delivers personal gifts and toys.

Shlomo and Tzirel are thrilled that their children attend Stein Yeshiva. Aside from their children's impressive academic growth since entering Stein Yeshiva, they love the yeshiva's individualized attention, warmth, and dedication that have enabled their children to blossom. The Kleins feel that they have had the opportunity to have a window into the Stein learning experience as the yeshiva moved to distant learning. They are continually amazed at their children's excitement and anticipation for their Zoom classes.!

Jeffrey and Daniella Remin

Jeffrey and Daniella Remin are the proud parents of Julie, Ella, Ezra, and Elisha. The Remins feel that all of their children have benefited from the exemplary education provided by the warmest and most caring teachers. "Every single morning," they said, "our children happily go off to school knowing they will be greeted by some of their favorite people."

Jeffrey grew up as a baal teshuvah in Westchester, just fifteen minutes away from Stein Yeshiva. Currently, he is an asset manager at Arbor Realty Trust where he assists clients managing their real estate portfolios. Jeffrey is an active community member who has held prior positions on the Yachad Young Leadership Board and the Camp HASC alumni association. When Jeffrey is not at work, you can find him outside playing with his children, at shul, or on the ice rink.

Daniella grew up in Toronto, Canada, and later attended Stern College and Touro College for graduate school where she received her master's degree in Speech Language Pathology. Daniella currently works as a speech therapist at a special education pre-school in the Bronx. During Daniella's free time, you can find her baking and cooking meals for other people in the community.

Jeffrey and Daniella are so grateful to the Stein Yeshiva family for welcoming their family and giving their children an outstanding education both inside and outside the classroom.

Mordechai and Penina Czarka

Mordechai and Penina are both natives of Chicago and met 11 years ago in high school.

After graduating Yeshiva University, Mordechai started his career in technology, designing and implementing online education courses for graduate students, while Penina embarked on her first early childhood education posting in Washington Heights. After several years in those roles, the Czarkas moved to Riverdale where they currently reside with their two children, Oliver, 2, and Brody, 1.

Since moving to Riverdale, Penina has worked as a morah at Stein Yeshiva. She is beloved by the kinderlach and brings an excitement and energy to her teaching. From kindergarten all the way through college, both Mordechai and Penina have attended Jewish schools. Their parents have passed on love and appreciation of Jewish education and values, and Mordechai and Penina both are continuing their family's legacy.

Community Service Award

Rabbi Scott and Sara Hoberman

Sara and Scott Hoberman live in Riverdale, with their children Chaya and Solly. Sara recently completed her studies as a Women's Health Nurse Practitioner, and Scott is currently finishing his post-Semicha fellowship in Yeshiva University's Bella and Harry Wexner Kollel Elyon.

The Hobermans are well known to many Stein families for their active role in the Riverdale community, where Scott has served for four years as part of the Riverdale Jewish Center's Rabbinic Team. Their daughter Chaya's wonderful presence has been felt daily in Stein Yeshiva for the past three years. Chaya is a natural leader. She loves to take the play siddur in class, gather around the children, and pretend to be the morah. She even sings the davening songs! Chaya's kindness and fine middos are a reflection of her parents' sterling values and avodas Hashem. Chaya's little brother Solly has joined his sister at the yeshiva and is following in her footsteps as a Stein scholar.

DEDICATING THE Baila Yehudis Gabin Learning Pavilion

Morah Gabin מ"א was one of the early pioneers of Stein Yeshiva. She ended her career as an Associate Menahel. A gifted and dedicated teacher, Morah Gabin was able to teach any grade, whether Pre-1A or advanced algebra. She was also able to reach every student, because, to paraphrase Chazal, just as a face is reflected in water so is a person's heart reflected in another's; and Morah Gabin had a very big heart. Her love and dedication to her students, and the entire yeshiva family, stretched way beyond the classroom. It knew no bounds! Despite being very busy with her own large family, there was always room in her heart and her home for one more person, and then another: one more person to help, and then another. She was a role model to her students and to us all; a true אשת חיל. The following is an excerpt from a tribute written by a former student, now a teacher himself.

I grew up in Yonkers, NY. . . I was so blessed to go to Stein Yeshiva in Yonkers from 3 years old, all the way through 6th grade. Even when my family moved to Queens, my mother quit her job at Our Lady of Mercy Hospital in the Bronx and started teaching at my school, so my brother and I could still attend Stein Yeshiva in Yonkers. These were undoubtedly the best years of my childhood. Stein Yeshiva was a small school. Kids came from different towns and religious backgrounds, but we really were a family.

Two days ago, I got the sad news, that the mother of this very special family, had passed away. Today, I helped bury Mrs. Barbara Gabin - My longtime teacher and my mother's good friend and colleague.

Mrs. Gabin or "Morah Gabin" was the most dedicated teacher I've ever had. She didn't just teach, her classes were a performance. It seemed like every lesson she taught had a rhyme and dance to it. As a little boy, I remember Morah Gabin marching my class down the hallways, chanting and singing our multiplication tables.

Barbara Gabin had 8 children of her own, but still made room for my brother and me to sleep over, as we needed relief from a crazy commute from Queens to Yonkers.

I have vivid memories of her always being busy, setting up a pizza party, peaking her head in a classroom to check on her prized students, etc... I wouldn't call teaching a job, or a profession, for Morah Gabin, teaching children was her mission.

I heard so many wonderful stories from Morah Gabin's family today. One of the truest things I heard, was that Morah Gabin entered every relationship with a question, "What can I give to this person?" . . .

To give yourself to another without any thought of reciprocity, is such a high level of love. I challenge us all to follow Morah's example, to shift our approach in our relationships. To find out what can we add to the relationship, instead of solely thinking, what can we get back from it. Aside from whatever extra blessing one may get from goodness, I like to say, the reward for being good, is goodness itself. Which is a feeling that no amount of money in the world can replace.

With that, I'd like to say goodbye to an Amazing Teacher. A huge role model in my life. A woman who helped shape me into the man I am today.

Sleep in Paradise, Morah Gabin.

Today, Stein Yeshiva dedicates the Learning Pavilion in memory of Baila Yehudis Gabin, מ"א. And we can be sure, that you will be guarding your Stein Yeshiva family from your place in Olam Haba, watching us and encouraging us all to do a little bit more, to open our hearts a little bit more, to be sure to reach every student with love.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
WE WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS OUR GRATITUDE
